

THE VAULT

Test your reactions and take on The Vault! Progress through each level and time it right, if you do you beat the game!

Game Play

Press the start button and let the fun begin. Watch as the white light spins around the wheel and look out for the red zones to stop the light in. At first it may seem easy but as you complete each level the difficulty will increase, your light will chase faster and the red zones will become smaller making it harder to crack The Vault. There is a variety of settings so the game is perfect for all ages and abilities.
